

youths' soccer ambition

Clockwise from left: Matildas star Kyah Simon with Soccerroos captain Lucas Neill; Kyah runs the children through a drill; Kyah and Lucas with Gemma Morgan, 8; and Lucas Neill came to Rawson Oval in Mosman to play football with children from around Australia.

Neill's brilliant career:

■ Lucas Neill currently plays with Pro-League club Al Jazira in the United Arab Emirates. He signed a one-year contract with the club but has not ruled out following fellow Soccerroo Harry Kewell's footsteps and playing A-League in Australia in the future. "Chances are if things continue the way they are I'm likely to sign on with Al Jazira for another year but A-League is still on the cards," he said.

Saying he felt younger and fitter than two years ago, Neill is confident he will captain the Soccerroos at the next FIFA World Cup in Brazil in 2014.

"All other desires and ambitions (such as coaching) will come second place to that," he said. Neill spent almost 15 years playing in England and has represented Australia more than 60 times, including captaining the Soccerroos at the 2006 and 2010 FIFA World Cups.
